Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First LessonWisdom of Solomon 1:16-2:1, 12-22

Lector: A reading from The Wisdom of Solomon.

The ungodly by their words and deeds summoned death;
considering him a friend, they pined away
and made a covenant with him, because they are fit to belong to his company.

For they reasoned unsoundly, saying to themselves, “Short and sorrowful is our life,
and there is no remedy when a life comes to its end,
and no one has been known to return from Hades “Let us lie in wait for the righteous man, because he is inconvenient to us and opposes our actions;
he reproaches us for sins against the law,
and accuses us of sins against our training.
He professes to have knowledge of God,
and calls himself a child of the Lord.
He became to us a reproof of our thoughts;
the very sight of him is a burden to us,
because his manner of life is unlike that of others,
and his ways are strange.
We are considered by him as something base,
and he avoids our ways as unclean;
he calls the last end of the righteous happy,
and boasts that God is his father.
Let us see if his words are true,
and let us test what will happen at the end of his life;
for if the righteous man is God’s child, he will help him,
and will deliver him from the hand of his adversaries.
Let us test him with insult and torture, so that we may find out how gentle he is,
and make trial of his forbearance.

Let us condemn him to a shameful death,
for, according to what he says, he will be protected.”

Thus they reasoned, but they were led astray,
for their wickedness blinded them,
and they did not know the secret purposes of God,
nor hoped for the wages of holiness,
nor discerned the prize for blameless souls.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God

Psalm 54

Deus, in nomine

Choir first, then antiphon as indicated

BCP p. 659

Antiphon

Save me, O God, by your Name; in your might, defend my cause.

Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

For the arrogant have risen up against me, and the ruthless have sought my life, those who have no regard for God.

Behold, God is my helper; it is the Lord who sustains my life.

Render evil to those who spy on me; in your faithfulness, destroy them.

I will offer you a freewill sacrifice and praise your Name, O Lord, for it is good.

For you have rescued me from every trouble, and my eye has seen the ruin of my foes.

Antiphon

The Second Lesson

James 3:13-4:3, 7-8a

Lector: A reading from the Letter of James.

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Hymn 637

How firm a foundation

Holy Gospel

Mark 9:30-37

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. John Bolin Shellito

A brief period of silence

The Nicene Creed

BCP p.358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Written by Alex Cormaney

The Leader and People pray responsively

It pleases God to know that we are praying for the world and his creation. We hope that we are loving God and loving people like Jesus taught us.

Lord, in your motherly love,
Hear our prayer.

The country pleases God when we welcome refugees and immigrants.

Lord, in your motherly love,
Hear our prayer.

It pleases God when we love our neighbors as ourselves.

Lord, in your motherly love,
Hear our prayer.

For those who are pained in their hearts, bodies, or spirits, especially _____. We pray that God would please please please love them to good health.

Lord, in your motherly love,
Hear our prayer.

For those who have gone to God and are now made whole, especially _____. We pray for their rest and their peace.

Lord, in your motherly love,
Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant concludes:

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

A brief period of silence.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

BCP p.360

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem

Teach me, O Lord

William Byrd

Presentation Hymn

Take my life, and let it be con-se-crated, Lord, to thee; take my mo-ments and my days, let them flow in cease-less praise. Take my hands, and let them move at the im-pulse of thy love; take my heart, it is thine own; it shall be thy roy - al throne.

And so remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Celebrant and People:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Celebrant continues:

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice, and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with Saint George and all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Celebrant and People: Blessed are you now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p.364

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept. Then may be sung or said:

Al - le-lu - ia, al-le-lu - ia, al-le-lu - ia. Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;—

there - fore let us keep — the feast. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Celebrant continues:

The gifts of God for the people of God.

Music at the Communion

The Bread and Wine are distributed to the communicants. Communion may be received around the Altar platform. Gluten-free wafers and chalice are available; please make your need known to the priest. If you do not wish to receive communion, please come forward with arms crossed to receive a blessing. Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitor (Used on Sundays as needed)

Celebrant: We send you out to share this Holy Communion with N _____. May those who receive it from you be strengthened and encouraged in the community we have together in our Lord Jesus Christ.

People: Go forth in the name of Saint George's bearing these holy gifts, so that those to whom you go may experience the majesty and mystery of Christ's presence through the sharing of the bread and wine. May you carry the prayers of all of us.

Post-Communion Prayer Enriching our Worship, Page 70

Celebrant: Let us pray.

People: Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. UPCOMING EVENTS

Sunday School Registration. Make sure your family is registered for the start of Sunday School! Sunday School and Catechesis of the Good Shepherd begins September 16th. Please fill out our online form located on our homage banner. Paper copies of the registration form are also available at the top of the stairs on the "Parent's Corner" bulletin board, and on the Children and Youth bulletin board in the main hall downstairs.

Donate your IPAD to Sunday School. Do you have iPads that are taking up space but not being used? The Sunday School would love to take those off your hands! If you have any iPads to donate please reach out to sundayschool@saintgeorgeschurch.org or talk with Tracy Yeager. Thank you!

Practical Ministry: Ushers Needed. "How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. They will be still praising thee. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness" (Psalms 84). At St. George's, ushers (doorkeepers) do everything in their power to ensure all in attendance have the best opportunity possible to connect with and hear from God. This could mean greeting a new comer, helping a family find seats together, offering a buddy basket to a small child, or pointing out the restroom. If you are interested in learning more about ushering, please contact Emily Davis at elg.davis@gmail.com or 703.581.9730.

Choirs Resume Rehearsals! New members welcome! Saint George's offers choirs for everyone, beginning at age 3 to adult, along with our Bell Choir. We welcome new faces in each of these ensembles. To learn more about our music ministry offerings and these choirs, as well as register for the upcoming year, visit our website saintgeorgesmusic.org or speak with our Minister of Music, Dr. Ben Keseley (bkeseley@saintgeorgeschurch.org)

Adult Forum: "Reclaiming Jesus: A Confession of Faith in a Time of Crisis, 09/16, 23, 30 and Oct 7th. 9:30 AM, Parish Hall. Each Sunday we come to church and in the ancient words of the Nicene Creed we profess the good news of Christ crucified, died and resurrected. What does this profession of faith mean for our walk as Christians through today's perilous and polarizing times in America? Join your fellow St. Georgians as we explore this question in a four-part series. Elliott Branch and Margret Hjalmarson, Adult Forum Coordinators.

Training for new acolytes, after the 10:30 Service. Any youth or adults age 8 and up who are interested in acolyte service at our Rite II, 10:30 worship are invited to join a training this Sunday in the nave, immediately following the conclusion of the postlude after the 10:30 service. We will cover responsibilities during the worship service as well as scheduling logistics, so the attendance of a parent is helpful at least at the beginning. Returning acolytes who would like a refresher or to share their insights are welcome to attend. Please email allisonotto@gmail.com with any questions.

Community Discussion on Mental Illness, following the 10:30 service, Room 114. You are invited to a community discussion on mental health in Arlington. Members of St. George's VOICE will be hosting a community discussion from noon to 1:00 pm on September 23 in Room 114. We will be discussing the question: "Do you think there are concerns about mental health in Arlington County?". All are welcome; come, listen, and share as you feel comfortable. Questions? Email The Rev. John Bolin Shellito at jshellito@saintgeorgeschurch.org.

Addiction and Opioids Series: 7pm - 9pm in the Nave on three consecutive Wednesdays; September 26th ~ October 3rd ~ October 10th. All are invited to gather for a series of evening conversations, focused on the challenges of addiction, as well as the paths forward, for prevention and recovery. Arlington County officials as well as other experts will share their expertise, with opportunities for Q&A and discussion. The recovery community has shared so many gifts with wider church: how can the church respond faithfully to today's circumstances regarding addiction? Some of our focus will be on opioid addiction in particular, although persons impacted by or concerned about any form of addiction are invited to participate and share their perspectives. Our series will also lead into a special worship service and forum with Rev. Jeff Grant (prisonist.org) at St. George's on Sunday October 14th. Hosted by Community of Hope.

Ordination of Deacon Katherine Ferguson, Saturday, September 29, 11 a.m., Galilee Episcopal Church, Virginia Beach, VA. God willing, the Diocese of Virginia will ordain Lawrence Elliott, Katherine Ferguson, Karla Hunt and Logan Taylor; the Diocese of Southern Virginia will ordain two deacons. All are welcome.

Celebration of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi: This year, our celebration of the Feast of St. Francis takes place over two weeks. Join us for coffee hour after the 10:30 service on Sunday, September 30, when we will welcome ambassadors from the Animal Welfare League of Arlington (AWLA).
